Teddy Heavens is the bass guitarist. New Mexico born and raised, he came to Los Angeles with punk rock band “Rebel Rebel” in 1988. Teddy currently also plays guitar, produces, writes songs with “Rebel Rebel” and the “Los Angeles Death Dolls”. He also enjoys playing bass and writing songs with Heavy Metal band “Steelwitch”. Teddy is a founding member of the Bounty along with Pam and Jaime. Teddy’s bass playing in the Bounty is inspired by Thin Lizzy, Grand Funk Railroad, Humble Pie, ACDC, UFO, Motorhead, KISS, and other classic rock bands from the 70’s. You can hear Teddy play on multiple releases that can be found at www.ftwrecords.com

Sterling Roberts is the Bounty’s drummer. His passion for music and drums started at an early age. By the time he was in Orville Wright Junior High School during the late 70’s and early 80’s, he joined his first rock band jamming with some of his elder high school chums. Through the years, he has played in numerous original rock, punk rock and funk projects, during which he also enjoyed sitting in with various cover tune ensembles. Loved by fans and the local music community, he has also laid down quite a few drum tracks and recordings through the years with a steady solid meter. These days he concentrates on his collaborations with the Bounty. He enjoys artistic freedom and camaraderie with these musicians. Some people merely play, but he performs! www.rockthebounty.com
